VILLAGE OF JOHNSON CITY

Update: State of Emergency

The Village of Johnson City has issued a State of Emergency effective at Noon today March 19, 2020 in response to the COVID-19 outbreak. This will allow village officials to act in a timely manner to protect the health and well being of our residents.

As a reminder all municipal buildings are closed to the public but staff is available to answer phone calls and email. Also the Library and Village Court are closed. This is in effect for the next 30 days unless rescinded sooner.
